It is reported in the streets that Brigham became unusually eloquent on the ocension; but all soon subsided, and conditions were agreed upon by which the tomahawk was buried.

These conditions were shout the same as had been agreed upon on the Governor's first visit, viz: The troops were to enter without opposition; elvil officers to be permitted to perform without interuption, and an unconditional obedience to the laws of the land. On the other hand all prior offences were to be forgotten as per President's proclamation-by-gones to be by-gones.
